Terms and Conditions for Procurement Cards in Cardholder Name

Cardholder agrees to accept responsibility for the protection and proper use of the Procurement Card (P-card) in accordance with the terms and conditions below:

1. Only the person whose name appears on the card shall use the card. Allowing another individual to use the card for any reason constitutes improper use.
2. Cardholder agrees to provide the supporting receipts from the vendor and a transaction log for each transaction as designated by the P-card Coordinator under the agency policies and procedures. Failure to report or document any purchase may be deemed an improper use of the P-card.
3. If the card is lost or stolen, Cardholder shall notify the Card Coordinator immediately.
4. Cardholder's department shall be responsible for all charges, including fees and interest, incurred from the proper use of the Card.
5. THE CARDHOLDER MAY NOT MAKE PERSONAL PURCHASES ON THE CARD. Cardholder understands that he shall be personally liable for any improper use of the P-card and agrees to pay to the issuer of the card such use (such issuer shall be a third party beneficiary under this agreement), other than improper use as the result of a lost or stolen card which was immediately reported as required in paragraph 3, including fees and interest assessed against the improper purchase. Cardholder understands that his/her improper use of the P-card may be cause for disciplinary action by the University including termination and that improper use of the P-card may subject Cardholder to criminal prosecution. Cardholder understands that the University may withhold amounts attributable to improper use by Cardholder from any paycheck or other state of Kansas warrant which may be payable to Cardholder.
6. Cardholder understands that this P-card is authorized for the purchase of:
 - a. Standard P-card Card – Purchases of commodities, capital outlay items and contractual service items coded in 12xxxx, 13xxxx and 14xxxx series of account codes made in accordance with approved KU purchasing policies and procedures. Student employees are only eligible for a Standard P-card.
 - b. Enhanced Standard P-card Card – May be utilized to purchase airfare, first night lodging, registrations and rental car services in addition to the types of transactions allowable using a Standard P-card. Student employees are not eligible for this card.
 - c. Enhanced Standard P-card With Expanded Lodging Option - May be utilized for all transactions allowable using an Enhanced Standard P-card account in addition to paying all charges for room and tax. No food, telephone or incidentals are allowed. Student employees are not eligible for this card.
 - d. Automotive P-card—Purchases are for the State of Kansas owned vehicle whose tag number appears on the application only. Personal purchases are not allowed. The department agrees to establish internal controls to prevent improper use and theft of the Automotive P-card, and submit these controls with the application. One of the controls the department shall establish is the recording of purchases on the department's vehicle use log. A copy of this log must be submitted along with the application for approval. Each month, the individual responsible for the card will verify that all transactions are correct and allowable by signing the log. This log is to be kept in the department for audit.
7. Student employees are only eligible for a Standard P-card. If a P-card is for a student employee, the supervisor shall remain in possession of the P-card when not in use. The student employee will obtain the P-card from the supervisor before making a purchase that has been approved by the supervisor. Upon completing the transaction, the student employee will return the P-card to the supervisor. The supervisor will notify Payables if the student employee is no longer employed by the department or no longer has purchasing duties. If the supervisor and student fail to follow this arrangement, P-card privileges may be revoked and disciplinary action may result.
8. Cardholder understands that should his/her employment with KU terminate for any reason, the P-card must be returned to the P-card Coordinator. Cardholder understands that the University may withhold his/her final paycheck until the P-card is returned. Cardholder also understands that the University may withdraw authorization to use the P-card and require the return of the P-card at any time for any reason.
9. Cardholder understands that use of the P-card is subject to individual card limitations on expenditures for use in official University business. All purchases must comply with state and KU accounting and purchasing statutes, regulations and policies including all policies the Cardholder's Agency implements in the use of the Card. Certain items may not be purchased with the P-card. Please refer to the University of Kansas P-card Procedures Document for specific details.
10. Cardholder acknowledges by his/her signature to this agreement, that he/she has received training in the proper use of the card; has received, read and understands the Agency's Business Procurement Card Manual and has read and understands this agreement.
11. If the cardholder does not pickup the card within 90 days of its arrival in the Comptroller's Office, the account will be closed and card destroyed.
